

User Content Submissions

NAMI Ohio encourages users to contribute content to this Website including, without limitation, videos and textual narratives that share your stories of hope for people with mental illness and associated comments thereto ("User Content"). NAMI Ohio reserves the right to review and edit or delete any such User Content. While NAMI Ohio encourages User Content that is supportive and helpful, through your use of the Services, you may be exposed to User Content that you may find offensive, objectionable, harmful, inaccurate or deceptive. You assume all associated risks.

Your User Content

You understand that when you submit User Content, you are granting NAMI Ohio a license to display the User Content on the Website, in connection with our services, or otherwise as set forth in these Terms of Use, and, whether or not your User Content is published on the Website, NAMI Ohio guarantees no confidentiality or anonymity with respect to your User Content. While you don't have to include your name, your likeness, or any other specific information in the User Content you submit, if your video or other User Content conveys your name, your likeness, (or other identifying information in the background of your video) you understand and agree that this information may be displayed on the NAMI Ohio Website along with your User Content. You retain all ownership rights in the User Content you submit. However, by submitting your User Content to the NAMI Ohio Website, you grant NAMI Ohio a worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable non-exclusive, royalty-free, sub-licensable through multiple tiers, and transferable license to use, reproduce, distribute, prepare derivative works of, display, perform, commercialize, and otherwise exercise all rights in and to the User Content in any media formats and through any media channels now known or hereinafter invented or discovered for any purpose consistent with the mission and vision of NAMI Ohio. Such license includes all rights and permissions to reproduce your likeness, name and any other personal information that you choose to submit as a part of the User Content. You also grant each user of the Website or our services a non-exclusive license to access your User Content, and to use, reproduce, distribute, display, link to and perform such User Content as permitted under these Terms of Use. NAMI Ohio reserves the right to monitor User Content and to remove or decline to post any User Content at any time, for any reason (or for no reason), without notice and at its sole discretion, including, without limitation, if it determines that User Content is inappropriate or fails to comply with these Terms. NAMI Ohio has no responsibility for the backup of any of any User Content or any lost data resulting from the use, operation or discontinuation of any aspect of the Services.
